

What does caring look like for you?

"I help my Mum get dressed because she can't do it herself"

"My brothers autism means he gets angry"

"I check on my sister because she is sad a lot of the time"

"I give my Dad medicine because he is poorly"

If you think you might be helping to look after someone in your family, talk to the school's young carer champion